Vinita, Oklahoma

The Eastern Company presenting "Freckles," and coming from New York City is positively guaranteed by the management to appear here. This is the same identical cast and scenic production that will be seen in Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Cleveland.

If you know a family in distress write a letter to Mr. Good Fellow and give him the street address of this family. He will see that a Christmas present is sent them.

A striking illustration of how much the average theatre-goer likes good singing is demonstrated by the number of encores "Freckles" receives and is forced to respond to, night after night. The songs as well as all the incidental music was especially written for "Freckles" by the noted Viennese composer, Anatol Friedland. The play is delighting thousands who have read the book and thousands who have not read it. There is an atmosphere about this remarkable play which delights all kinds of theatre-goers. It is strong in poetic fancy, a revelation to lovers of nature and possesses sufficient stirring incidents to keep the dramatic interest at concert pitch from beginning to end. And then again, the music, specially arranged for this production is tuneful and inspiring. Under the direction of D. L. Martin, it will be seen in this city for the first time, tomorrow evening at the Grand Theatre.

Want Vacation Time Extended.

As an inducement for its clerks to take their vacations in the winter instead of during the usual vacation season, the Imperial Bank of Germany is offering its clerks extra time off if they take their outings between September 15 and May 1. The bank finds it necessary to employ hundreds of extra clerks in the summer months to take the places of those who are on vacations, and believes that if the outings are spread over the whole year business will be less handicapped.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia."

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.
